

Songs & Dances of Imaginary Lands

A site-specific contemporary opera, taking place in Culver City from Thursday, July 8 - Sunday July 18, 2010.

RECYCLING PROGRAM

Help us to create the imaginary lands by bringing us your recyclables.

NEWSPAPERS

Must be clean and dry.
Inserts are acceptable.

CORRUGATED CARDBOARD

CORRUGATED cardboard (like shipment boxes) & brown paper bags are acceptable.
Please flatten.

PLASTIC BOTTLES

Must be clean and dry.
All sizes are acceptable.

CATALOGS, JUNK MAIL and MAGAZINES

Includes all "slick" paper.
Must be clean and dry.

BOOKS

Telephone, paperback, and hard cover books are all acceptable.
Must be clean & dry.

Your recyclables will be made into art. Overtone Industries will bring together local artists and volunteers in a series of free public workshops, beginning in May to create props, sets and costumes for the production. The sets and costumes will be created primarily from recycled materials that have been donated and transformed through your participation!

COLLECTION LOCATION & TIMES

8840 Washington Blvd. Culver City, CA 90230

Starting Saturday, April 24 to Sunday, June 20, 2010

Saturdays and Sundays from 11 AM to NOON

Songs and Dances of Imaginary Lands takes the audience on a journey with working class Tom and aristocratic Sue, who have lost their identities. The couple reclaims their story by means of a device that allows them to inhabit the "lands" that hold the pivotal experiences of their lives embodied in songs, dances, pledges of allegiance, and rituals indigenous to those turning points. Songs and Dances of Imaginary Lands was conceptualized by Director O-Lan Jones in an extensive collaboration that involves twenty one librettists, eleven composers, Costume and Scenic Designer Snezana Petrovic, Musical Director David O, and many others. Performances will run from Thursday - Sunday, July 8 - 18, 2010, at 8:00 pm nightly, with Sunday matinees at 2:00 pm.

(323) 655-2410 | www.overtoneindustries.org